

GroTechMinds

1	Verify that users can successfully register for a new account.
2	Validate the login functionality with valid credentials.
3	Test login with invalid credentials and ensure proper error messages are displayed.
4	Test the search functionality for one-way flights.
5	Test the search functionality for round-trip flights.
6	Validate search results for different classes (economy, business, first class).
7	Test for multi-city flight search.
8	Verify that the user is presented with additional options like-luggage, extra legroom, foods/beverages, etc and selecting the same results in additional cost with the booking amount.
9	Validate the system's ability to handle multiple passengers in a single booking.
10	Validate the flight information,Fare details,Baggage Rules and Cancellation Rules link has the details in the search result page.
11	Validate if after clicking on book button in the search page user is able to enter every text fields present like pincode,state,radio button,Firstname,lastname,email id,mobile number ,promo code etc
12	Login to page,search the flight and logout
13	Check if user is able to apply for coupon code while ordering the product
14	Check is user is able to search the domestic round trip flight
15	Reach til payments page and select credit card option->enter card option->make the payment